syndee says these bracelets are easily the most commented pieces of jewelry that she's ever worn. I can see why, they are made with laser transfers onto the sheet of clay. They're quick, tons of fun and a great introduction to transfers.

Everything you need will be provided. Clay, transfers, tools, etc. You can bring their own transfers as well, as long as they are laser prints (and they have to be reversed left to right so that they transfer correctly). syndee will be available via email and text to help students with their transfers and would be delighted to help you "clean up" the transfers in Photoshop.

So what else can you do with transfers? How about transferring Dover clip art? Your kids' art? Your black and white photos? Your own photo line drawings?

syndee holt been an independent designer for Sculpey (Polyform Products) for over 18 years and she currently serves as the Polyform Brand Ambassador. syndee is a founding member and former President of the infamous San Diego Polymer Clay Guild. She's written over 100 articles for crafting magazines both national and internationally. In addition, she wrote Polymer Clay for the First Time, which is still available through amazon.com. syndee has also made about 33 television appearances on HGTV,
